ORDER OF WORSHIP

(Please prepare your heart and space for worship.)

OPENING CHIMES

OPENING VOLUNTARY                      Be Thou My Vision                      Larry Shackley

WELCOME    Rev. Amanda Hendler-Voss

OPENING HYMN                                      Holy, Holy, Holy                                      (see page 6)

CALL TO WORSHIP    Rev. Karen Byrne

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)    Rev. Sam McFerran

Eternal God, we confess that our nation has used tragedy as an excuse for war rather than an opportunity to call forth greater compassion. In our grief after 9/11, we targeted Sikh and Muslim communities, especially men, as enemies. The cost of our violence has been too heavy to bear. We have forgotten that the stranger and even our adversaries are beloved by you and part of the human community. Forgive our sins. Fire our holy imagination and lead us in the ways of peace, Amen.

SILENT PRAYER

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

PASSING OF THE PEACE OF GOD    Rev. Sam McFerran

(Please unmute yourself and greet those around you with words such as "The peace of God be with you." Let us bless one another with deep peace across time and space.)

CENTERING MOMENT                                      Aria (Goldberg Variation)                                      BWV 988

SCRIPTURE READING    Abigail Cipparone

Proverbs 1:20- 2:11

Wisdom cries out in the street; in the squares she raises her voice. At the busiest corner she cries out; at the entrance of the city gates she speaks: "How long, O simple ones, will you love being simple? How long will scoffers delight in their scoffing and fools hate knowledge?"

Give heed to my reproof; I will pour out my thoughts to you; I will make my words known to you. Because I have called and you refused, have stretched out my hand and no one heeded, and because you have ignored all my counsel and would have none of my reproof, I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when panic strikes you, when panic strikes you like a storm, and your calamity comes like a whirlwind, when distress and anguish come upon you. Then they will call on me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently, but will not find me. Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the Lord, would have none of my counsel, and despised all my reproof, therefore they shall eat the fruit of their way and be sated with their own devices. For waywardness kills the simple, and the complacency of fools destroys them; but those who listen to me will be secure and will live at ease.

My child, if you receive my words and treasure up my commandments with you, making your ear attentive to wisdom and inclining your heart to understand; yes, if you cry out for insight and raise your voice for understanding, if you seek it like silver and search for it as for hidden treasures; then you will understand the fear of God and find the knowledge of God. For God gives wisdom; from God's mouth come knowledge and understanding; God stores up sound wisdom for the upright and is a shield to those who walk with integrity, guarding the paths of justice and preserving the way of God's saints.

This stirring hymn used at the opening of Riverside Church in New York in 1930 was penned by its widely-known and influential pastor, and it has gained a firm place in English-language hymnals around the world. The Welsh tune name honors the Rhondda Valley in Glamorganshire.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Welcome to First Congregational UCC. We were founded in 1865 by abolitionists as the first racially integrated church in Washington, D.C. In 1867 our mission committee played a prominent role in the founding of Howard University. The church has been located at its present site at 10th and G Streets NW since 1868. In more recent years, the church affirmed its vision as an Open and Affirming (ONA) Church (1987), a Just Peace Church (1985), and a Multiracial/Multicultural Church (2003). Our new building, constructed according to Gold LEED standards, was dedicated in 2012. First Church continues to follow its faith journey into the future, and to be a prophetic voice for the Spirit in the nation's capital. If you would like to know more about First Church or would like to make it your spiritual home and community, please contact churchoffice@FirstUCCDC.org or 202.628.4317.
