CENTERING MOMENT	Amazing Grace	Phillip Keveren
SCRIPTURE READING		Nora Marsh

1 Corinthians 9:6-10

Who plants a vineyard and does not eat any of its fruit? Or who shepherds a flock and does not taste any of the milk of the flock? Do I say this as a human person? Does not the law also say the same? For it is written in the teaching of Moses, "You shall not muzzle a threshing ox." Is it for oxen that God cares? Or does God not, by all means, speak for our sake? It was indeed written for our sake, for the one who must plow should plow in hope and whoever threshes should thresh in hope of partaking.

SCRIPTURE READING		Diane Brenneman

John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.” Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE, PASTORAL PRAYER,
AND THE PRAYER OF OUR SAVIOR Rev. Amanda Hendler-Voss
and Rev. Sam McFerran

Our God, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil;
for thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

CLOSING HYMN “Now Thank We All our God” (see page 8)

Adult Nurture on Reproductive Justice: Sunday, January 30

11:45 am -12:45 pm on Zoom

The Texas law banning abortions after the detection of fetal heartbeat and recent Supreme Court hearing on the Mississippi ban after 13 weeks threaten reproductive rights of women guaranteed by Roe v. Wade in 1973. What can people of faith do to protect a women's right to choose and access to safe reproductive health care? Join us for this timely discussion.

Welcome and introduction by the Rev. Barbara Gerlach, former minister of First Church, who will discuss the history of the struggle to legalize abortion and her involvement with the Clergy Consultation Service prior to Roe v Wade (which provided options counseling and referrals for safe abortions and advocated for legalization of abortion and the state-of-the-art abortion clinics).

Understanding Reproductive Justice by Essence Ellis, Intern, UCC Council for Health and Human Service Ministries (CHSSM), who will ground the issue of abortion in the context of reproductive justice at the intersection of racial, economic, and LGBTQ+ justice.

Making Decisions About Our Bodies, Our Lives by the Rev. Kaeley, McEvoy, Associate Pastor of Westmoreland UCC and member First Church, who will share her experience of having an abortion, the ethical and theological understandings that grounded her decision, and her advocacy work for reproductive justice.

Advocating for Reproductive Justice by Sandy Sorensen, Director of the UCC Justice & Witness Ministries (DC office), who will provide a legislative update on the Women's Protection Act, states in danger of ending access to legal abortion or have trigger laws to restrict abortion if the Supreme Court rules to end or erode Roe v Wade.

There will be time for Q & A and Rev. Amanda will close in prayer.

Note Regarding Translation

Today's gender-expansive translation of the biblical texts comes from the Rev. Dr. Wilda C. Gafney, a Hebrew biblical scholar and Episcopal priest, a former Army chaplain, and a congregational pastor in the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church. This translation hails from her new lectionary A Women's Lectionary for the Whole Church, published by Church World Publishing Incorporated in 2021.

Sign Up as Scripture Reader or Liturgist this Winter

Click here to sign up to serve as a scripture reader or liturgist in worship this winter. We welcome members and friends, local and far flung, adults, youth and children to participate. Your voice helps make us who we are, so please take a moment to sign up. Our worship is enriched by your active participation. We are currently in Phase 2, which allows for scripture readers and liturgists to choose to lead by Zoom or in person in the sanctuary.

First Church Sponsoring Afghan Refugee Family

The Sanctuary Committee is thrilled to let you know that we have officially been matched with an Afghan family through the Lutheran Social Services Good Neighbor Program. As a level 2 partner, we will provide needed items for the family to settle into their housing and then support them over the next year as they integrate into their new community. This is in partnership with the Gurdwara Guru Gobind Singh Foundation in Rockville.

The family is a 5-person unit including parents, and 3 children ages 14, 12, and 7 (we're confirming the gender of each child). They have been settled in Alexandria, VA. Though they have already been placed in their housing, they currently lack any furniture that didn't come with the unit, including any beds!

Therefore, we need your help! If you have any materials you would like to donate to our family, please check out this google spreadsheet that includes all of the materials we need to provide. You can sign up for any item(s) you have to donate. There is a 2nd tab for miscellaneous donations, so if you have an item that is not on the required list, feel free to note it on the 2nd tab (clothing, for example).

A few notes:

- Please only enter your name in an open gray cell in the sheet
- If you've already contacted Lindsay Swisher about having an item to donate, she has included your name in the sheet next to that item. Feel free to remove it if your donation is no longer available.

Enter Donations Here

Lindsay Swisher and Susan Saudek will be available this Saturday morning (1/29) in the First Church parking garage from 8:30am - Noon for folks to drop off their donations. Exit the P3 parking lobby and turn right. Our storage cage is in the northwest corner of the garage. If you're not able to drop off your item(s) on Saturday morning or if you need a pick-up arranged for your item(s), please contact one of them directly so they can work out alternate arrangements. Our hope is to get our family many of the needed supplies by the end of this weekend! This won't be the last opportunity to support our family, and the entire Sanctuary committee thanks you in advance for your enthusiastic commitment to this process.

Inquirers' Gathering: February 13

Save the date of February 13, following worship, to join Rev. Amanda, Rev. Sam, Moderator Susan Anderson, members of our Outreach & Membership Commission, and newcomers for our winter Inquirer's Gathering. This will be a time of getting to know one another, sharing stories, exploring the history of First Church and the UCC, and answering any questions about membership. All newcomers are welcome to attend! This virtual gathering will happen by Zoom following worship at 11:40; those who plan to attend can remain on the worship Zoom call. If you plan to attend, please email Rev. Amanda at ahendlervoss@gmail.com; however, you do not have to RSVP to attend.

Welcome to First Congregational UCC. We were founded in 1865 by abolitionists as the first racially integrated church in Washington, D.C. In 1867 our mission committee played a prominent role in the founding of Howard University. The church has been located at its present site at 10th and G Streets NW since 1868. In more recent years, the church affirmed its vision as an Open and Affirming (ONA) Church (1987), a Just Peace Church (1985), and a Multiracial/Multicultural Church (2003). Our new building, constructed according to Gold LEED standards, was dedicated in 2012.

First Church continues to follow its faith journey into the future, and to be a prophetic voice for the Spirit in the nation's capital. If you would like to know more about First Church or would like to make it your spiritual home and community, please contact churchoffice@FirstUCCDC.org or 202.628.4317.
