SCRIPTURE READING Anthony Leonard
Philemon 1:1-7

Paul, a prisoner for Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother,
To Philemon our beloved co-worker and Apphia our sister and Archippus our companion in struggle, and the church in your house:
Grace to you and peace from God our Father-Mother and the Lord Jesus Christ.
I thank my God always when I remember you in my prayers, because I hear of your love and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and all the saints, and I pray that the sharing of your faith may promote the knowledge of all the good that is ours in Christ. For I have derived much joy and comfort from your love, my brother because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you.

SCRIPTURE READING Meg Maguire
Philemon 1:8-25

Accordingly, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do what is required, yet for love's sake I prefer to appeal to you—I, Paul, an ambassador and now a prisoner also for Christ Jesus—I appeal to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become in my imprisonment. (Formerly he was useless to you but now he is indeed useful to you and to me.) I am sending Onesimus back to you, sending my very heart. I would have been glad to keep him with me, in order that he might serve me on your behalf during my imprisonment for the gospel; but I preferred to do nothing without your consent in order that your goodness might not be by compulsion but of your own free will.

Perhaps this is why Onesimus was parted from you for a while, that you might have him back forever, no longer as a slave but more than a slave, as a beloved brother, especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. So if you consider me your partner, receive Onesimus as you would receive me. If he has wronged you at all, or owes you anything, charge that to my account. I, Paul, write this with my own hand, I will repay it—to say nothing of your owing me even your own self. Yes, brother, I want some benefit from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Christ. Confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.

One thing more—prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping through your prayers to be restored to you. Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends greetings to you and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

OFFERING

Rev. Amanda Hendler-Voss

As we worship both in person and virtually, we invite you to give in a variety of ways. Place your offering in the offering plate on the way out of the sanctuary, send your check to the office, or give online through our website at www.firstuccdc.org, which includes options to give through PayPal or Vanco. Consider signing up for auto-giving to sustain our ministries.

DOXOLOGY

“Old Hundredth”

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God for all that love has done;
Creator, Christ, and Spirit, One. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE, PASTORAL PRAYER & PRAYER OF OUR SAVIOR

Rev. Amanda

From a New Zealand Prayer Book

Hendler-Voss

Eternal Spirit, Earth-maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver,

Source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all,

Loving God, in whom is heaven:

The hallowing of your name echo through the universe!

The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world!

Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!

Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.

With the bread we need for today, feed us.

In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.

In times of temptation and test, strengthen us.

From trials too great to endure, spare us.

From the grip of all that is evil, free us.

For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever. Amen.

Second Sunday Special Offering: Pathways to Housing DC

August's Second Sunday offering will support the work of Pathways to Housing DC, an organization that seeks to end homelessness in DC and support recovery for people with complex health challenges. Founded in 2004, the group has helped over 900 people move into permanent housing. 100% of the people that Pathways to Housing helps are overcoming mental illness, substance use, or severe health challenges. Their Housing First model begins by housing people directly from the streets, without preconditions. Then mental health, addiction, physical health, employment, and educational challenges are addressed via behavioral healthcare, an urgent care clinic, a supported employment program, and a downtown day services center. Please consider donating to Pathways to Housing DC to directly aid the most vulnerable of our citizens. How you can best support and participate? Please click here to fill it out even if portions are not relevant to your specific situation. Please don't hesitate to speak to me in person or by phone. Yours in love and service, Leela/Director of Music Ministry.

Sign Up as Scripture Reader or Liturgist this Fall

Click here to sign up to serve as a scripture reader or liturgist in worship this fall as we launch a new worship theme, "Gathered from the Four Corners of the Earth." We welcome members and friends, local and far flung, adults, youth, and children to participate. Your voice helps make us who we are, so please take a moment to sign up. Our worship is enriched by your active participation.

Support Migrants Arriving in DC: Hygiene Kit Project on October 2nd

First Church's Sanctuary Committee invites you to an all ages, hands-on event to help our newest neighbors. Since April, the governors of Texas and Arizona have been sending hundreds of buses to DC carrying thousands of migrants, including families with children and infants. These individuals and families are entering the U.S. legally, seeking asylum from countries like Venezuela, Nicaragua, and Cuba. They arrive here with nothing. The DMV community has shown up to receive every single bus to support our new neighbors. This grassroots effort by community organizations, mutual aid groups, and individuals is a huge undertaking and an expensive one, involving meals, intake assessments, showers, and hygiene opportunities, help with lodging or a ticket to their final destination for a hearing. On October 2nd after worship, we will gather in the community hall for an update from the Sanctuary Committee before we assemble hygiene kits for migrants arriving in DC. Children and youth are especially welcome to join us. From September 4 - 25 you can drop off items in a labeled box in the Narthex. Your donation should be new and unopened individual sample-sized products like you would find in a hotel. To learn more about what's happening in our city around migrant busing, click here. Stay tuned for an email on how you can donate via Amazon and Sign-Up Genius. Thank you for your generous support!

Coffee Hour is Back: Check Your Hosting Date

Care of Parish has taken the liberty of signing folks up for coffee hour through the end of the year (with the exception of the July 4th weekend when there will be no coffee hour), using emails in the church directory. This is a return to our pre-COVID system of scheduling coffee hour hosts and one that has worked well in the past. You should get an email reminder for the date when you are signed up to host but click here to take a look and get it on your calendar now. If you can't make your date, please try to either trade with someone or find a substitute. No one should be signed up more than once for the rest of 2022 unless you volunteered for a dual sign-up, but if you find that you are signed up more than once feel free to either find a substitute or let Mark Jensen, Chair of Care of Parish, know. Click here to view instructions for hosting coffee hour. Thank you for helping bring coffee hour back!

New Church Directory Now Available

Thanks to the hard work of Trista, our Administrative Assistant, the 2022 church directory is now available in print. You can pick up a copy any Sunday when you attend worship. As a reminder, the online directory is also always available with the most updated information. Click here to access our online directory.

ucc.org

Welcome to First Congregational UCC. We were founded in 1865 by abolitionists as the first racially integrated church in Washington, D.C. In 1867 our mission committee played a prominent role in the founding of Howard University. The church has been located at its present site at 10th and G Streets NW since 1868. In more recent years, the church affirmed its vision as an Open and Affirming (ONA) Church (1987), a Just Peace Church (1985), and a Multiracial/Multicultural Church (2003). Our new building, constructed according to Gold LEED standards, was dedicated in 2012. First Church continues to follow its faith journey into the future and to be a prophetic voice for the Spirit in the nation's capital. If you would like to know more about First Church or would like to make it your spiritual home and community, please contact churchoffice@FirstUCCDC.org or 202.628.4317.
